San Francisco labor unions are discussing a proposition to establish a daily labor paper for he Facile coast.

The local baseball season came to a close out at the Polo Grounds yesterday, and it is pretty safe to say that a big majority of baseball patrons are glad of it. People were weary of the sport, which has been more or less tedious and uninteresting throughout the season. Still, local cranks might have gotten just a grain of comfort from the last game on the home grounds if had been a Journeymen Tailors' Union No. 97 has have gotten just a grain of comfort from the last game on the home grounds if had been a victory instead of a defeat. But this was not to be; the lowly Ortoles, even, felt that the Giants had no license to beat them, so they turned in and walloped the shaky-looking of the Brooklyn Firamer's Union. The other team Manager Powers brought out, by a score officers are: J. Hoefleh, Financial Secretary; A. Sarine, Recording Secretary of the Brooklyn Firamer's Union. The other officers are: J.
